

Charging and Remissions Policy

The QPG Community & Sports Hub offering the majority of their services for either free or extremely low cost, and affordable for all. The highest cost for our clubs will be £1 per week.

There is no charge for Breakfast Club and food is donated by the 'Magic Breakfast' Charity.

After School Club

The company makes a charge for the service based on individual requirements.

At the time of this policy, the cost is set at only £1 per week.

The QPG After-School Club have many clubs that run at different times of the year after school which provide a rich and varied programme of activities.

Our holiday clubs are run by volunteer individuals and organisations and are charged for. Letters are sent out in advance to notify parents / carers of what is available and the cost for each session/term. There is a termly booking fee.

Damaged or Lost Property

Parents may be asked to make a contribution towards replacing damaged or lost hub property caused wilfully or negligently by their children, e.g. broken window, damaged or lost book. Any charge made in respect of individual students will not be greater than the actual cost of providing the optional extra activity, divided equally by the number of pupils participating.

Any charge will not include an element of subsidy for any other pupils who wish to take part in the activity but whose parents are unwilling or unable to pay the full charge. In cases where a small proportion of the activity takes place during after-school club hours, the charge cannot include the cost of alternative provision for those pupils who do not wish to participate.

Parental agreement is necessary for the provision of an optional extra which is to be charged for.

Voluntary contributions

Charging and Remissions Policy

As an exception to the requirements set out in section 5 of this policy, the QPG hub is able to ask for voluntary contributions from parents to fund activities.
